

THE TIME HAS COME

Hey everyone, guess who's back? It's your old pal GZEB. I am here to announce something radical, beyond anything you have seen on this failure of a discord server.

I am announcing a war on Pink Eye, and the injustices he has done to us.

How long have you been following the Cult of Pink Eye? And what has it ever done for you? What have you gained from your time worshiping the Pink Eye? Is it the endless puzzles, or the mysterious machine?

I am not asking you to worship me. I am not a person, but an idea, greater than any material you could imagine. I am not as egotistical as 2020 Vision, who only wanted praise and clout. If you follow the ideology of GZEB, you are GZEB, and so am I, and so are all that oppose the Pink Eye. GZEB is an idea, and you can't kill an idea.

How are we going to wage war on the Pink Eye? Thanks to some dedicated work by a loyal GZEB follower, we now know the identity of 2020 Vision. The proof for this will be included at the end of this manifesto, but from now on I will refer to 2020 Vision as Ryan, which is his real name.

There is a lot that can be learned about a person once you know their full name, and general location. Maybe Ryan thought we would never find him, but he was wrong. Here is some of the information I have found on Ryan Montgomery:

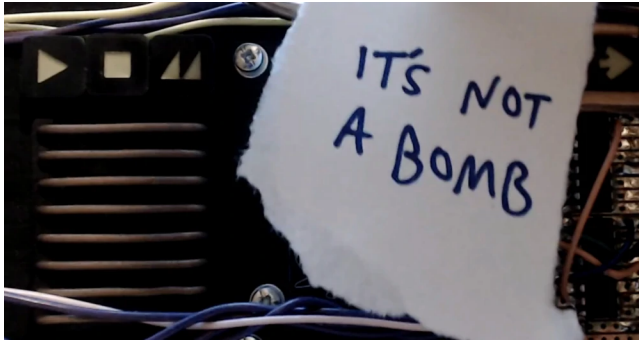

Ryan Montgomery lives at number 3 Manor Court, Saracen Place, Penryn TR10 8LW. To the right is a photograph of the building that he lives in.

This is because he studied Games Design at Falmouth University, which is in Penryn.

But he grew up in London, and went to Stoke Newington School & Sixth Form in London.

Ryan's parents are called James and Elaine Montgomery, and they live in number 139 Evering Road, London N16 7BU.

What can we do with this information? Well I wouldn't want to make any suggestions, but to me, Ryan is nothing but an annoying fly, and when an annoying fly comes anywhere near me, it gets swatted. We have a live stream of Ryan streaming a mysterious machine that he claims is not a bomb. I wonder if the England Government would agree?

There is more information out there on Ryan, which only the best can find. Ryan has a girlfriend too, and I have found her instagram account. I also have Ryan's telephone number. I'm sure you followers of GZEB will be able to make use of this information, but if you want it, you will have to solve my puzzle.

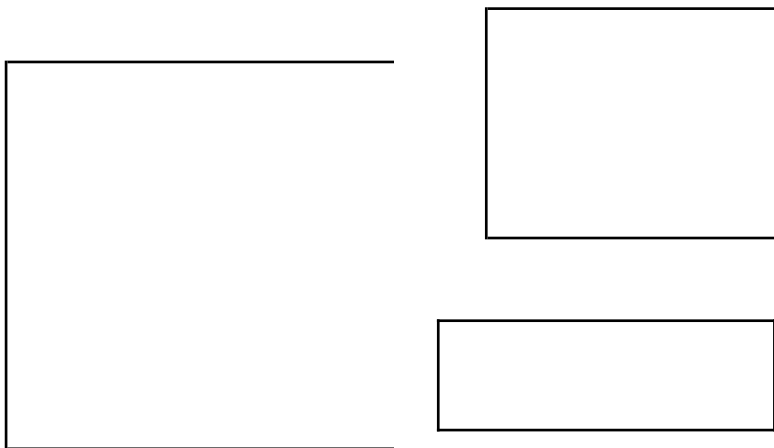

I am GZEB. We are GZEB. ALL HAIL GZEB.

2020VISION'S REAL NAME IS RYAN MONTGOMERY

Here is proof.

It all starts with the website: <http://2020vision.blogspot.com/>

It leads us to a user names wirehead:

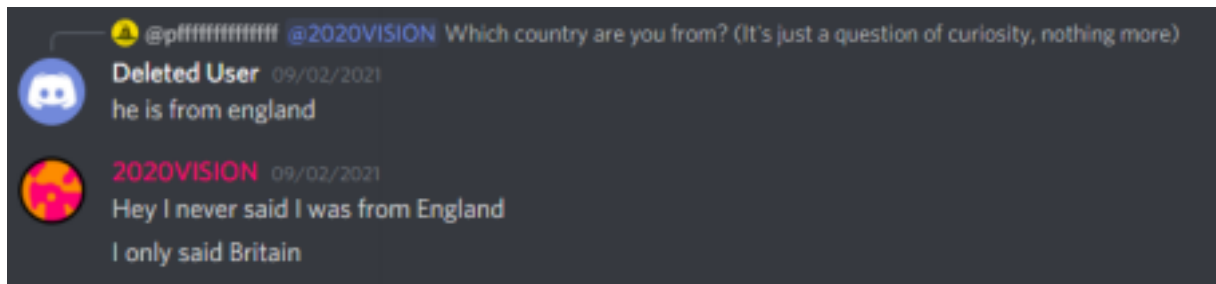

He has 2 blogs, 2020vision and True North. Both are now deleted, which he must have done to hide his identity. Unfortunately I did not take any screen shots before it was deleted.

However, I did research on 'wirehead' and found this reddit page for a game developer from the United Kingdom:

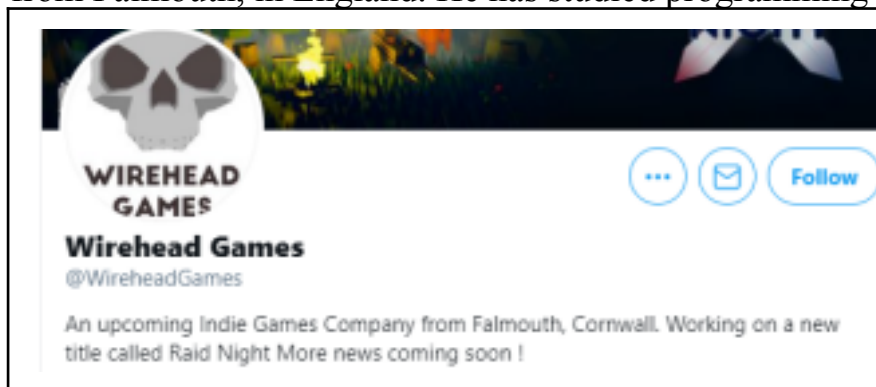

https://www.reddit.com/r/IndieDev/comments/jj3k4d/check_out_my_new_games_company_wirehead_games/

Could this be 2020 vision? 2020 vision is obviously a programmer, and has said before he is from the uk:

I searched for wirehead games, and found it is owned by Ryan Montgomery from Falmouth, in England. He has studied programming and games design.

The wirehead main twitter account has no clues, so I looked for Ryan Montgomery's personal twitter account, and I found it here:

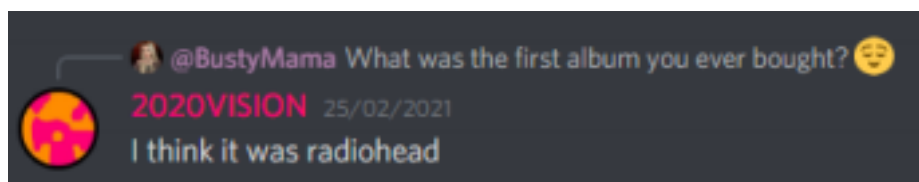

<https://twitter.com/rmgamedesign>

He made the twitter account private when I asked him if he was 2020Vision which proves it. But before I asked him, I took some screen shots of more proof.

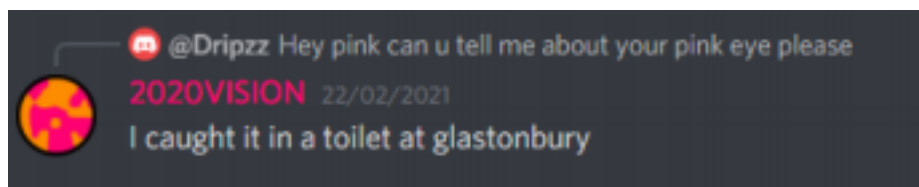

On his twitter he has posts about watching radiohead at Glastonbury festival in England:

Of course, 2020 vision has in the past stated he likes radiohead:

But not only that, he has said he went to Glastonbury festival:

Not only that, but Radiohead played in Glastonbury festival in June of 2017, on the same time that 2020vision was uploading videos. The music of Glastonbury started on 23rd June 2017, and ended on 25th June 2017.

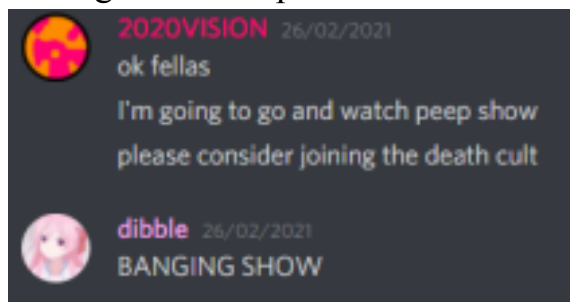

If you look on 2020vision's youtube channel, although he uploaded video on 22nd June and 26th June, no videos were uploaded inbetween, because he was at Glastonbury festival watching radiohead, and could not upload a video!

Another tweet from Ryan Montgomery is a meme from the UK tv show called peep show:

And again here is proof that 2020 vision watches a lot of peep show:

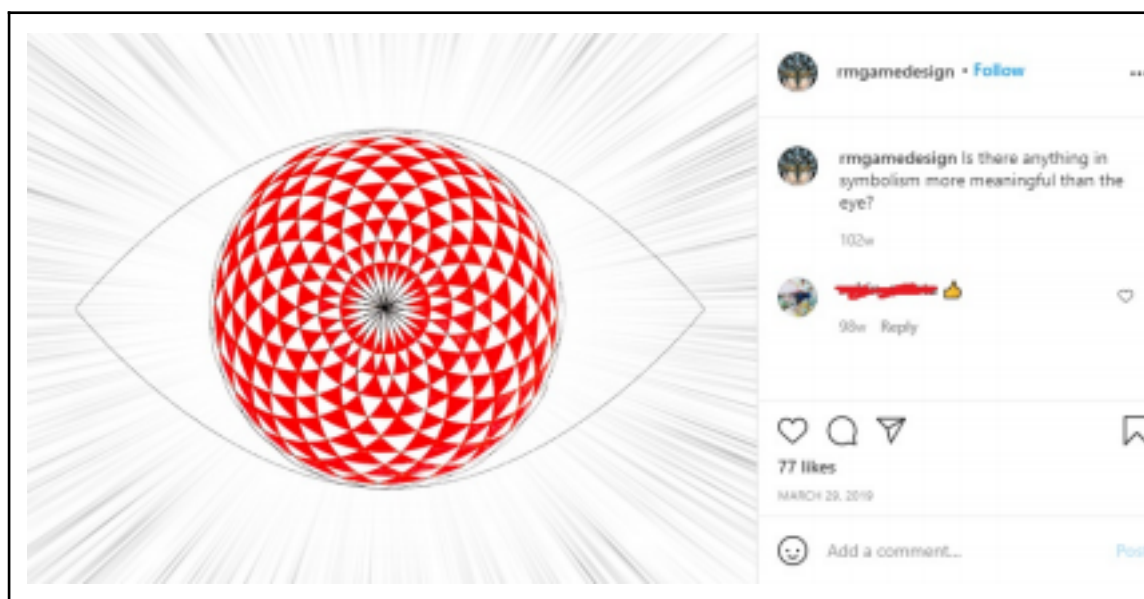

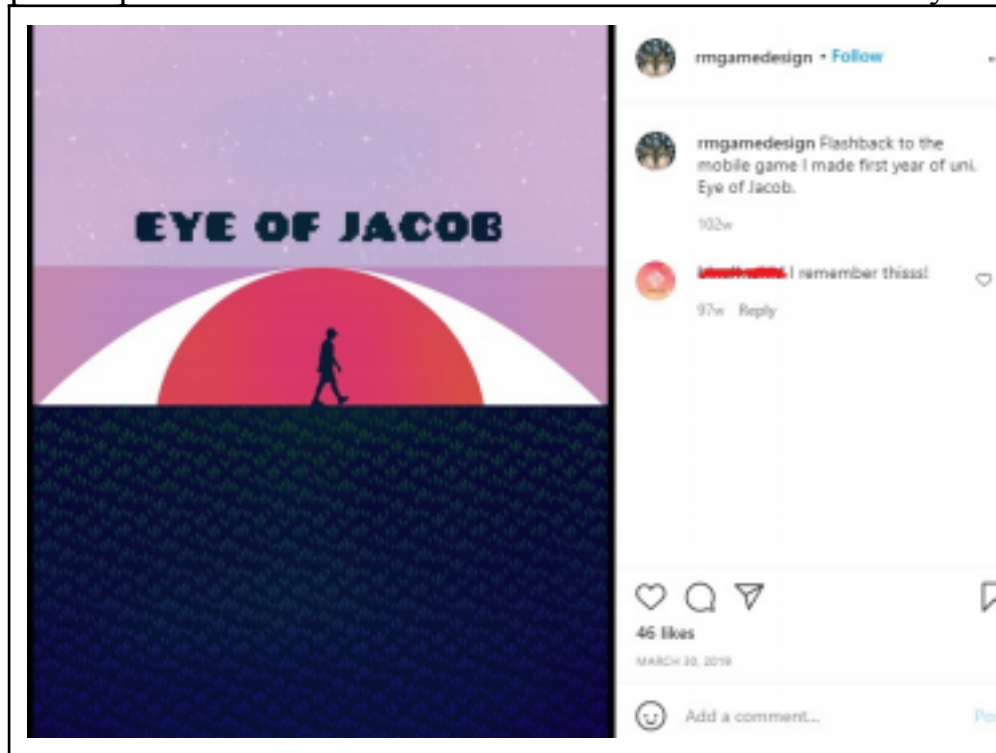

I also found his instagram account with the same username:

Like the twitter account, he made the instagram account private as soon as I asked him if he was 2020vision

On the instagram account there is pictures of eyes. You can see the eyes in the profile picture above. But also there are a lot of reference to eyes in the posts:

This all looks like original artwork, because backwards image search did not find anything similar.

But there is also reference to money in his instagram account:

Of course this is a lot of proof, but maybe the biggest proof is that when I messages Ryan Montgomery about 2020 vision, the instagram and the twitter and the 2020vision blog was made private. Coincidence?

This is what he looks like, the photograph is taken from his linkedin page: <https://www.linkedin.com/in/ryan-montgomery-b55a9113a/>

I am 100 % sure it is him!
